

AN INVITATION

I am so excited to invite you to YES, Your Elemental Soul, to awaken you to your divine essence, the Elemental Powers you were born with, the gifts of your birthday.

I first offered this program in 2020 and I want to share this new expanded version with you now so that we can grow together. No program is created by one person though I may be the initiator and wayshower of some of this wisdom, it is you that expands and grows what is possible. This is an invitation to enliven the hidden dimensions of YOU.

You, my beloveds, who are you? You are explorers attuned to inner knowing and seeking to go deeper to expand your consciousness and spiritual alignment. You are eager to awaken your mythic self and know the sacredness of all things. You have an open mind and heart to metaphysical explorations, astrology, scientific wisdom, creativity, and the senses. You want to know yourself better, have more meaningful relationships, enjoy life and nature more, and have fun, of course.

A journey - Where are we going? We will dive through a new portal that makes visible the invisible into personally relevant wisdom for your life and creative spirit. This program will open you to who you are elementally, your hidden powers, gifts and challenges plus how to engage all of you. As you dive deeply into your elemental soul, this initiation takes you to your sacred self.

YES takes you into an alchemical, shamanic, and symbolic exploration of elemental wisdom as uncovered initially by the microscopic photography of minerals of the Zodiac. I made an unexpected discovery while working as a cancer research scientist at the University of California Medical School. On the side, I was delivering slide shows of the hidden microscopic beauty of our cells and molecules to children with cancer; I thought that the 12 mineral salts would provide more pretty pictures.

Little did I know that my microscope and I would uncover ancient occult knowledge hidden in these molecules. What knowledge was revealed? How may it guide you to your inner knowing, self-love and understanding?

The microscopic minerals of the Zodiac revealed specific shapes and designs that aligned according to the four elements - air, fire, earth, and water. In ancient times the Zodiac was referred to as the "soul of nature." We learn from modern science and ancient sacred wisdom, the how the elemental qualities of the Zodiac and Nature inform our personalities and temperaments. We will dive into our stardust origins we realize that we are cosmic gifts and there is usefulness to the insights of metaphysical and elemental cosmic wisdom. You may even engage your playful self to create your own personal view of your elemental nature.

"The atoms of our bodies are traceable to stars that manufactured them in their cores and exploded them across our galaxy, billions of years ago. ... We are chemically connected to all molecules on Earth and all atoms in the universe. We are literally stardust." – Neil deGrasse Tyson

We are star people since all of our elements were birthed in the stars. Why wouldn't they have some cosmic message for us? We also access the hidden and ancient symbolic language of the elements, the hidden symbols within us. Through lecture, visual presentations, reflections, and guided imagery, you will experience and discover your inner powers. With at-home assignments you have the opportunity to use your creativity to express your alchemical astroelemental signature in art, perhaps a mandala, a deck or maybe even a dance. Come play with us online on Zoom for 8 weeks while we translate the beautiful messages of these elemental molecules of life, deciphering the alchemical code of your birthday and relationships. The gift of your elemental signature will help you align with the birthright of your inner powers, blessings and gifts. As you expand your experience, wisdom and knowledge, you may want to create your own deck of the elements and your Astroelemental signature as they speak to you. Exploring symbols of the self helps activate the experience of your mythic self and soul powers, the gifts of your birth.

What I am hoping you will get out of YES:

- An optimistic, loving and compassionate, passionate view of your self and life
- Deeper inner awareness of your elemental nature and to fully manifest a greater sense of self, empowered and alive
- Greater discernment about your relationships with others, your self, and with nature.
- New ability to design and divine solutions for greater aliveness.
- Know the sacredness of all things and the surprises within us.
- Experience awe and wonder of our hidden universe.
- See the spectacular beauty of your elemental signature

We start Wednesday September 8, 2021 noon PDT. Save your place on our space ship.
